men from all parts of the world to these shores. John B. Svanberg, a Swede, is the latest to arrive, landing at New York this week.

Svanberg is tieksted to that clever trainer, Ernie Hertberg, who is also in charge of Johany Hayes. Hayes and the Swede will work together while waiting for work for their clever legs. Svanberg is unlike the ordinary distance runner, for he can go any distance from five miles to the Marathon route. Mr. Shrubb will be accommodated or Matt Maloney can have a ry at the Swedish crack, who has really run and won many hard races abroad.

Manager Bowler offered to trade Bridges for Schincel, but Manager Durant of the Waterbury team could not see his way clear to accept. Jim Clarkin offered Fallon and O'Leary for Ham Wade or John Golden, but Goldle Bowler said he was not anxious to dispose of any of his good players. Manager H, R. Durant of Waterbury has received some offers during the past few days from Eastern league magnates who are anxious to turn over players and it is likely that some of the players will be taken. Manager Kalley of Toronto has offered to sell Pitcher Applegate and Outfielder Caffyn and both men will be taken if the terms for the payment can be sutisfactorily arranged. Both are players of big reputation and should prove a valuable addition to the Waterbury team. Manager John Ganzel of Rochester has offered to turn over pitcher Rannister who made quite a price of the cough.
